So we have to say a big ol' thank you to all of you who showed up to our Super Bowl Sale this past weekend. Thank you for your patience of standing in line (we hope you met a new friend to share quilting stories with!). We saw a lot of smiles, so thank you for your good humor!

Now we also have to give a big ol' BOOOOOO to the weather on Sunday! We have gotten emails from disappointed ladies who didn't want to risk the weather. So for those of you who were very, very smart and didn't brave the snow, we're giving you a redo!!!

For One Day Only

SUPER BOWL SALE REDO!!!

Saturday, February 7th

9:30 am to 5:00 pm

We will re-run our 25% off storewide sale

So here's another chance to get in and get some great savings for your favorite pastime. We hope the weather will cooperate and you can get in (or come back again!) for the sale.

We also wanted to run another possibility by you ... if you came into the shop this past weekend, we have the samples up for our newest BOM projects. Daisy Chain Cottage (it was the pretty pastel quilt in the back room designed by Lynette Anderson was a hit. So Lynette, who is a designer from Australia, contacted us that she was going to be in the area this Spring and had a day available if we wanted to do a class. The problem was that it is Memorial Day, May 25th. So we wanted to toss it out to you and see if anyone would be interested in taking the class. This is a wonderful opportunity to get a class from Lynette. Getting teachers from abroad gets expensive, so if she's here anyway, it makes it a little more cost effective. These are some options of classes ...

So if you think you would be interested, please let us know and we'll see if we can í r m up the day with Lynette
We've heard from other quilters that she is a stitch, so the day should be very entertaining.

We hope to see you on Saturday, and if you would like a class with an Aussie, let us know!
