Lynette Anderson Re-Cap

We had a wonderful weekend with Lynette Anderson! She was fun and her techniques were amazingly easy and enjoyable. We'll never be afraid of little bitty appliqué pieces again. We seem to be seeing a resurgence of appliqué and a lot of people shy away from it because it seems too hard. The nice thing about appliqué is that once the pieces are prepped, you can hand or machine stitch them down.

We were disappointed we couldn't fit everyone into her classes.
So even though it won't be quite the same,
we thought we would offer a:

Lynette Anderson Play Day!

Saturday, June 13 from 10 am to 3 pm
No charge

Walk in, sit down and play with the Appliquik tools and see how easy turned-edge appliqué really is. We'll have several stations set up so you can try it yourself.

We still also have all of Lynette's patterns, fabrics, buttons and do-dads. That way, you can plan your next project!!

*See you soon,
Teri & Marty*
