We bet you actually sang that in your head 😊 (it's ok - you're not alone!)

Just reminding you that Material Rewards is throwing their annual Christmas in July this coming weekend ...

FRIDAY & SATURDAY - JULY 29th & 30th

We will start at 10:00 am and have lots of new ideas for Christmas decorating, gift giving and items for you to stash for yourself! We'll present for roughly 1-1/2 to 2 hours.

We have some really fun FREE patterns for you this year and new uses for tools and notions that you might already have.

Hope to see you this weekend.

PS - We have a correction to a kit that is in the shop ... Rest Your Head kid's quilt.

If you bought the kit, the directions have you cut the panel 6-1/2" and the panel needs to be cut 7-1/2".

If you've already chopped into your panel, please contact us and we'll get you straightened out.

We apologize for any inconvenience.
