Hey all,

Have you ever had those days that the stuff you know "should" be done always gets pushed to the back of the line? Well, our newsletter always seems to take that path. But Teri and I are determined to not leave the office until it's done!!! If you come in the next couple of days, just slide some treats under the door 😊

Treats please !!

The Row by Row Experience is up and running for the summer of 2016. Coming out of the blocks, we stubbed our toe a bit ... if you were in early and picked up a pattern/kit, please click on the correction on the right. When the pattern was printed, it was scaled to full page -- oops!! It has been lots of fun to meet new girls from all over the country. We think that Wyoming is our furthest quilter so far!!! If you are traveling this summer, please be careful, but have a great experience!!

The theme this year is Home Sweet Home and we did a curved pieced flag with "God Bless Our Home" on it (if you get a kit ($12), the letters are all prepped to fuse down!). We also decided that we are showing our patriotic colors all summer long, so there are lots of red/white/blue themed project in the shop. We'll be getting them on the website ASAP. And remember, just because the 4th of July is over doesn't mean the red, white and blue should be put away till next Memorial Day!!!

Our Quilter's Sale & Picnic is coming right up.
Thanks to those of you who have called to find out the details ...

Quilter's Sale & Picnic Monday - July 11

Sale: 8:00 am - 11:00 am 20% off storewide
Picnic: 12 noon - ???
@ Foursquare Church - 40 West Ave.

We have lots of new kits and the fabric is squeezing out the door and with a sale, it makes it that much more fun. Please remember for the picnic, to bring your own table setting and something for Show N Tell. Sometimes it's like pulling teeth to get you modest girls to share what you are working on, but if everyone were modest, we'd have no Show n Tell!!! Even if it's in progress, we'd like to see what you're up to! We'll provide the drinks for the day.

Simple Whatnots 5 Using Kim Diehl's new Welcome Wagon fabric

The Fed Ex guy brought a fabulous shipment the other day!!! Kim Diehl's new Welcome Wagon for her new Simple Whatnots 5 has arrived and is very yummy! We've been a little Kim"dry" around here as we skipped Whatnots 4 to give everyone a chance to get caught up. It was worth the wait!! Kim's new 6 projects are wonderful and we can't wait to get started on the models.

Teri and I also came up with a cool new twist to do with the program - we're going to take all 6 small wall quilts, add a little bit of this and that and make them into a larger quilt. This will be optional of course, but if you don't need more small quilts, this is a fun way to make them larger. We have the kits for the individual projects ready to go, so if this sounds like fun to you, give us a shout and we'll get one to you. If you follow us on Facebook, don't be surprised to see updates on how the quilt is coming!!! The program will still be the $28/month for the 6 months.

Christmas in July at Material Rewards

Friday & Saturday, July 29 & 30
starting at 10 am each day

Along with details on the picnic, we've also been getting reminders that our Christmas in July event wasn't scheduled either. This year's event will be Friday & Saturday, July 29th & 30th.

It's been hard to think of Christmas with the weather we've been having, but being the troopers that we are, Teri and I have come up with some pretty fun ideas. We have some free patterns that are terribly cute this year along with projects from small to large.

We'll turn up the air conditioning real high those days just to get us in the mood!!!

We hope that you are having a great summer!

Be safe, be cool and most important, be quilting!!!

Teri & Marty
