June 1, 2020

OMG! After almost 2 ½ months were finally going to be able to say it again....

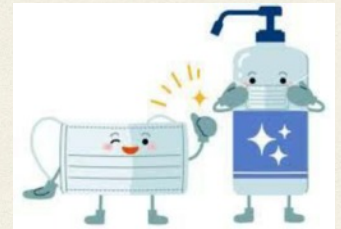

WE ARE OPEN FOR BUSINESS!!

We are back to normal hours starting June 2. Just in case you can't remember what normal hours are - Tuesday - Friday, 9:30-5:30 and Saturday 9:30-4. We are closed Sunday and Monday. It's been a long haul, and this will be a step back to normal!

Yes, we are opening, but there will be a few directives that we'll all have to follow (for a while, at least)...

- ◇ All customers will need to wear a mask while in the shop.
- ◇ We have touch free hand sanitizer dispensers outside both doors, please feel free to avail yourself both coming in and leaving the shop.
- ◇ If you aren't feeling well, we ask that you postpone your visit.

That's pretty much it, guys. Most of you know that Teri, Mikay and I come from a large family. When we were kids, our Dad had a saying whenever we had unsavory news (i.e. grades weren't quite what they should have been) - "You're carrying your own insurance". That was his way of telling us that we needed to be responsible for our own actions. We've decided that it was pretty sound advice then, so are using it now. If you aren't feeling well, stay home. If you come for a visit and the parking lots indicate that there are more people inside than you are comfortable being around, go grab a cup of coffee and try a little bit later.

So, let's take 1 step back towards normal living, and stop by and see all the new items that arrived since quarantine started.
