

Material Rewards

August 24, 2020

OK!! Mark your calendars, folks. Teri and I are heading back to the stage and screen for another action-packed event...

We usually have our Christmas in August event, but came across so many cute fall ideas that they, of course, needed to have equal time – thus, Fallidays was born.

Monday, August 31 @ 9:30 am, we will host another Facebook live event and take you on a tour through the shop with all our new Fall and Christmas projects, new gift ideas, and have some fun freebies available to you. Remember that you don't have to have a Facebook account to watch. If you do have an account, you can join in on the fun and comment or ask questions as we go along. We'll send you a link Sunday night that will take you right to the correct page. You can either watch live or join us later, at your convenience.

It has, also, been a tradition that we give you some free patterns at Christmas in July and we don't want to stop that, so there will be some .pdf files on our website that you can download. We'll also have them available in the shop, so you can pick them up here too.

Hope you can join in on Monday. See you then...
